Description

As a Baruch College intern, you'll be placed in a specific department or program based on your interests and qualifications. You'll collaborate with dedicated mentors and peers on projects related to:

- Business: Gain experience in marketing, finance, accounting, entrepreneurship, and more.
- Law: Assist with legal research, court proceedings, and community outreach initiatives.
- Public Administration: Explore urban policy, non-profit management, and public service careers.
- Arts & Sciences: Dive into fields like psychology, biology, history, communication, and writing.
- Education: Support K-12 educational programs or explore higher education administration.

Responsibilities

- Assist with assigned projects under the guidance of experienced mentors.
- Conduct research, collect data, and prepare reports relevant to your internship area.
- Participate in workshops, trainings, and professional development opportunities.
- Contribute to maintaining a collaborative and professional work environment.
- Specific tasks will vary depending on the chosen department and program focus.

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled in an undergraduate program at Baruch College.
- Minimum GPA of 3.0 required (may vary depending on program).
- Strong interest in the chosen field and a desire to learn.
- Excellent communication, analytical, and problem-solving skills.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team.
- Proficient in Microsoft Office Suite, with additional software skills preferred depending on the program.
- U.S. citizenship or valid work authorization required (check specific program guidelines).

Experience

- Prior internship or relevant work experience preferred, but not required.
- Experience in your field of study or a related field is a plus.
- Strong academic performance demonstrates your ability to excel in the internship.
