- Support the development of newsletters, reports, and presentations for employment-related updates.
- Conduct research on best practices in employment communications and recommend improvements.
- Help organize and coordinate recruitment events, job fairs, and employee engagement activities.
- Collaborate with HR, marketing, and public affairs teams to ensure cohesive messaging.
- Perform other administrative and communication tasks as needed.

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled in an accredited college or university program pursuing a degree in Communications, Public Relations, Human Resources, Marketing, or a related field.
- Must be eligible to work in the United States.

Experience

- Prior experience in communications, marketing, public relations, or human resources is preferred but not required.
- Experience with social media management and digital content creation is a plus.

Skills

- Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- Strong attention to detail and organizational abilities.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office Suite (Word, Excel, PowerPoint) and content management tools.
- Knowledge of social media platforms and basic graphic design is a plus.
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively in a team environment.
- Strong research and analytical skills.
